Manufacturer Description: For more than 20 years, The WerCS has provided automated MSDS authoring software. No other vendor approaches our real-world implementation experience and our ability to offer a comprehensive yet flexible MSDS authoring solution to companies - regardless of size and geography. Our thousand plus, global user community serves as our strongest reference. This is why major ERP solution providers such as Oracle, PeopleSoft, JD Edwards, Adonix and Ross Systems have endorsed and partnered with The WERCS as their preferred hazardous communication module.

The WERCS solution isn't just software – it represents people, experience and a 20 year commitment to advance global materials compliance. The culmination of The WERCS MSDS authoring software suite represents the thoughts, wants and needs of numerous industries, hundreds of companies and thousand of users, worldwide. Innovations such as industry and customer specific rule-based automated MSDS authoring, ASP and hosting capabilities, as well as outsourced authoring services, all make it easier for you to stay compliant – regardless of size and geography.
